APPENDIX

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I. This organization shall be called The American Society of Microscopists.

ARTICLE II. The object shall be the encouragement of microscopical research.

ARTICLE III. Any person interested in microscopical science may become a member of the Society upon recommendation in writing by two members, nomination by the Executive Board, and election by a majority of the members of the Society present at any regular session of the Society.

ARTICLE IV. The officers shall consist of a president, two vice-presidents, a secretary and treasurer; and shall hold their offices for one year, or until their successors are elected and qualified. No officers except the secretary and treasurer shall be eligible for re-election for at least two years after the expiration of their term of office.

ARTICLE V. The duties of the officers shall be the same as in other similar organizations; in addition to which it shall be the duty of the President to deliver an address during the meeting at which he presides.

ARTICLE VI. There shall be an Executive Committee consisting of the officers of the Society, the past Presidents, and three members elected by the Society.

ARTICLE VII. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to fix the time and place of meeting of the Society, arrange the business, and manage the general affairs of the Society, and superintend the publication of the proceedings.

ARTICLE VIII. The election of officers shall be held on the morning of the last day of each meeting, and they shall commence their term of office at the beginning of the following meeting.

ARTICLE IX. Candidates for office shall be nominated by a committee consisting of seven members of the Society. This committee shall be elected by a plurality vote by ballot after free nominations.

ARTICLE X. The initiation fee shall be three dollars, and the dues shall be two dollars, paid in advance annually. No applicant shall be considered a member until he has paid his dues.

ARTICLE XI. Amendments to the Constitution may be made by a two-thirds vote of all members present at any annual meeting, after having been proposed at the preceding annual meeting.

TREASURER'S REPORT.

To the Officers and Members of the Society :

No full report of the Treasurer of the Society having heretofore been rendered, I have considered it best to include in this report a statement of the receipts and disbursements of the Society from its organization at Indianapolis to the present time.

I desire to state that since the Buffalo meeting I have provided the necessary books pertaining to the office of Treasurer, and have had the accounts of the Society entered therein.
